

ASSOCIATION OF ASIAN CONFEDERATION OF CREDIT UNIONS

Asian Credit Union Executives Society

"Join us in making a difference, building one credit union at a time."

What is ACUES?

ACUES is a membership-based organization under the umbrella of ACCU that serves as a resource for credit union professionals seeking to improve their leadership skills, enhance their knowledge of industry trends, and network with peers. The organization is committed to helping credit unions succeed by providing access to education, training, and networking opportunities that support the growth and development of credit union professionals at all levels.

Mission

The mission of the Asian Credit Unions Executive Society (ACUES) is to educate and develop credit union CEOs, executives, and future leaders through innovative professional development programs and services.

The credit union executives play an important role in advancing the credit union movement in Asia as a driver of economic and social development, promoting the values of financial democracy, mutual aid, and community empowerment.

Activities:

- To provide professional development opportunities: ACUES aims to provide credit union executives with access to high-quality training and professional development opportunities that will help them improve their leadership skills and keep pace with the changing needs of the financial industry.
- To facilitate networking: ACUES seeks to create a platform for credit union executives to connect with one another, share best practices, and collaborate on solutions to common challenges.
- To promote knowledge sharing: ACUES aims to promote knowledge sharing among credit union executives by organizing conferences, workshops, and other events where participants can exchange ideas and learn from one another.
- To support credit union growth and development: ACUES is committed to promoting the growth and development of credit unions in Asia by providing access to training, resources, and networking opportunities that can help credit unions expand their reach and better serve their members.

ACUES benefit to members.

The Asian Credit Unions Executive Society provides a range of benefits to its members, including:

1. Professional Development: Members have access to high-quality educational and training programs that help credit union professionals develop their skills, knowledge, and leadership capacity, enabling them to provide better services to their members.
2. Advocacy: Members benefit from the society's advocacy efforts, which promote policies and regulations that support the growth and sustainability of credit unions in Asia, and that promote the values of financial inclusion, social responsibility, and cooperative finance.
3. Networking and Collaboration: Members have opportunities to network and collaborate with other credit union professionals, building strong relationships and networks that support the growth and success of the credit union movement in Asia.
4. Social Responsibility: Members are encouraged to serve as responsible cooperative citizens and to support community development initiatives that address social and environmental challenges, promoting social responsibility and community development among credit unions.
5. Knowledge Sharing: Members have access to the society's resources and knowledge base, including research, best practices, and case studies, enabling them to stay up to date on the latest developments in the credit union field.
6. Recognition: Members have opportunities to be recognized for their contributions to the credit union movement in Asia, through awards, certificates, and other forms of recognition.
